Representatives of 21 Colleges To Assist High School Students

Representatives of 21 colleges, junior colleges, and technical schools will be on hand for the third annual Education Advisement Night next Thursday, Jan. 12, at Torrance High School, according to Assistant Superintendent Albert Posner. All sophomore, junior, and senior students at Torrance's three high schools and their parents are invited to attend the sessions. They will have a chance to meet with representatives of the colleges, trade schools, and all of the armed forces.

A GENERAL explanatory COLLEGES TO be represent-session in the THS Auditorium will get under way at 7:30 p.m., with Dr. Carl Ahee, Torrance High principal, welcoming those in attendance. Theme of the evening is "Focus on the Future."

Parents and students then will have a chance to break up into small groups, meeting with college or school representatives of their choice. There will be opportunity for parents to meet with three or more representatives.

ed include Long Beach State, UCLA, El Camino, Redlands, Pepperdine, Cai Tech, Loyola, Whittier, Cal Western, Westmont, and Brigham Young.

Ski-School Reopens Here

Another dry-land ski school will be conducted at Torrance's El Retiro Park starting Tuesday.

Sessions will be conducted for three consecutive Tuesdays starting at 7:30 p.m. and artificial snow will be provided on the last meeting if conditions permit.

Enrollment is open to all persons over 15 years of age. Younger children may enroll if their parents are in the class.

There is a fee of $1 for the series. Equipment may be rented for the last two sessions. The park is at 126 Vista del Parque. Instructor of the series is Ed Feister, a member of the Far West Ski Assn. Over 40 persons participated in a similar series in November.

Author of 'Psycho' to Address Area Writers at Next Meeting

Robert Bloch, prolific writer of mystery, suspense and science fantasy, will speak on "Horror is My Business" at the next meeting of Southwest Manuscripters, Jan. 20 at 8 p.m., Clark Stadium, 861 Valley Drive, Hermosa Beach.

Formerly in the advertising business in Milwaukee, Bloch began his career as a freelance author 26 years ago and has subsequently contributed more than 400 stories to his field. His credits include books, short stories, screenplays and teleplays.

BLOCH ROSE to recent prominence with his book, "Psycho," published by Simon and Schuster and adapted to the motion picture by Warner Brothers. He has just completed another screenplay for Warner Brothers called "The Couch."

Recent television credits have been "Changing Heart," shown on "Alfred Hitchcock Presents," both story and teleplay by Bloch, and "The Hungry Glass," a story adapted for "Thriller."

HIS BOOK, "The Dead Beat," was published last summer by Simon and Schuster, and a collection of short stories, "Pleasant Dreams," was recently compiled by Arkham House.

All interested writers, professional and beginner, are invited to attend the next meeting and hear Robert Bloch. For information call Mary Edith Lindsay, secretary, FR 2-6159.
